LOST BOTH WAYS

Juan Barneche Lost His Liberty and Now Loses His Wife

Juan Barneche is the name of the gentleman now in the county jail on two charges of assault to murder. He lives, when at home, at Ballona, and a week or two ago loaded up with wine and then proceeded to do up his wife. The two Machado boys interposed, and Barneche drew his pistol and opened fire on them. He had a gay time for awhile, but was finally landed in jail.

Barneche and his wife owned considerable property, and he thought there was a strong probability of his better half making away with it during his incarceration. As an easy way out of the difficulty he filed suit for divorce against his wife, charging cruelty. Not to be outdone, Juana Barneche made answer by filing a cross complaint, also charging cruelty, and the case came to trial yesterday before Judge Clarke. A decree was granted to the defendant on her cross complaint.
