

A $500 MARRIAGE LICENSE.

The Obstacles in the Way of True Love Overcome.

County Clerk Potts issued a marriage license yesterday to Pedro Darancette and Catalina Harotcharene. The possessor of this last unpronounceable name, tired of wearing it at the early age of fifteen, and so conspires to exchange it for the euphonious cognomen of Darancette. However, a hard-hearted parent steps in between her and her joy, and interposes an objection to the issuance of the license. As the young lady is under the care of a guardian, who gave his consent, Clerk Potts was in a dilemma. He found a way out, however, by demanding an indemnity bond of the would-be benedict in the sum of $500 and the license was forthcoming, notwithstanding the parents' protests. The young lady in the case is petite, handsome, and winning in appearance, and ere this item is read will probably have realized her desire and taken the name of her affianced.

Clipped By:

m_gariador
Sun, Jul 9, 2017